TEXT FOR THE WEEK

...Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

He shall dwell on high: his place of defence the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him; his waters sure. {Isa. 33: 14-16}

This work of molding, refining, and polishing is the mother's. The character of the child is to be developed. The mother must engrave upon the tablet of the heart lessons as enduring as eternity.

Child training is the grandest work ever committed to mortals. The child belongs to the Lord, and from the time it is an infant in its mother's arms, it is to be trained for Him. {FLB 264.5}

The home should be to the children the most attractive place in the world, and the mother's presence should be its greatest attraction. . . . By gentle discipline, in loving words and acts, mothers may bind their children to their hearts. {FLB 264}

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

When the divine Presence was manifested upon Sinai, the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire. . . . But when Christ shall come in glory with His holy angels the whole earth shall be ablaze with the terrible light of His presence. . .

Amid the most terrific convulsions of nature the voice of God, like a trumpet, was heard from the cloud....He whose voice then shook the earth has declared, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven."

When Moses came from the divine Presence in the mount, where he had received the tables of the testimony, guilty Israel could not endure the light that glorified his countenance. How much less can transgressors look upon the Son of God when He shall appear in the glory of His Father, surrounded by all the heavenly host.

...amid the tempest of divine judgment the children of God will have no cause for fear. The Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. The day that brings terror and destruction to the transgressors of God's law, will bring to the obedient, joy unspeakable, and full of glory."{Mar 40}
