The only persons in the printery during services should be those working with the PA/IT systems.

- Please remember to donate to the Relief Fund.
- Special donations for Antigua Relief can be marked appropriately.

If happiness is drawn from outside sources and not from the Divine Fount, it will be as changeable as varying circumstances can make it; but the peace of Christ is a constant and abiding peace. It does not depend on any circumstance in life, on the amount of worldly goods, or the number of earthly friends. Christ is the fountain of living waters, and happiness and peace drawn from Him will never fail, for He is a well-spring of life. Those who trust in Him can say: "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. . . . There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High" (Psalm 46:1-4). {FW 88.2}

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

In the Psalm David speaks of God's being a refuge and a strong tower, a refuge and a fortress; unto Him we can run and we can be saved. How precious is the thought that God is our refuge and that He will be our helper in all times and in all places, and that in every emergency we have God with us. He says that He will give His angels charge over us to keep us in all our ways. . . . In our God we have a helper, and we will trust in Him. We must constantly look in that direction, believing that the angels of God are round about us, and that heaven is in communication with us, because these heavenly messengers are ascending and descending upon the ladder of shining brightness. . . . {CTr 333.5}

How is it with us? Are we standing with the whole armor on, so that we can work in harmony with the angels of God who are working for us? {CTr 333.6}

TEXT FOR THE WEEK

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.

though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Ps. 46:1-3.
